CATTLE, HIDES, ETC.

Cattle—Cows, 21-2@3c per pound gross; yearlings and heifers, 21-2@31-2c gross; calves, 3@4c.

Hogs—Market is slightly on the decline with quotations at 8c per pound. Hides—Green, 5@7c per pound; dry, 3@12c.

Beeswax—Per pound, 15@20c. Wool—Per pound, 12@16c.

The cattle market is practically unchanged from last week's quotations, with butcher cattle a trifle scarce.

POULTRY AND EGGS.

Hens—Common stock $3.00@3.50; fancy, $4.00; extra fancy (6 and 7 lbs.), $4.80; baking size, $4.00.

Spring Chickens—Per dozen, $3.50; fryers, $3.00; broilers, $2.50@2.75; deepens, $1.50@1.75.

Turkeys—Per pound, 10@11c, according to size and quality. Turkey hens in better demand than cocks.

The market is in excellent shape for turkeys, as the demand for the Thanksgiving season has just opened.

Geese—Demand good; full feathered, $4.00 per dozen; plucked, $3.50. Market bare.

Guineas—Per dozen, $2.00@2.50. Ducks—Ready sale at $3.50@4.00 per dozen.

Eggs—Fresh, 25c per dozen.

The chicken market is almost entirely bare; not a single coop was left over from yesterday's sales. The demand for turkeys is excellent, and "Old Tom" has made his appearance on the market. They are gobbled up by eager buyers as fast as they reach the market. All kinds of chickens find ready sale at fancy prices for those of good quality. Not enough eggs on the market to supply half the demand at the prices quoted. The demand is so great for produce of this kind that it is taken up the day it is brought in.

Mr. Green has been the leading figure in many republican battles against the democrats of the state in the past.
